King's preclamation of the treaty was issued on the 17th of June, and published in this paper on the 21st of the same month. The law to exempt American goods from duties as provided in the treaty was passed by the Legislature July 18th, and published in this paper August 16th. This is all that is demanded by the treaty itself or by our constitution, and as

as the convention may last. WHILE the thanks of the Hawaiian People are due to the many able Senators and Representatives in Congress who labored so carnestly for the treaty, we must not forget the services of our special envoy, Elisha H. Al-LEN, who has borne the burden of the work which has fortunately been crowned with success. His Excellency is now well advanced in years, and as a reward for his services, we cordially and earnestly recommend that he be appointed as Hawatian Minister Resident AT WASHINGTON. There will be questions of greater or less importance, both political and commercial, arising out of the treaty, which will require that some person clothed with diapproved by Henry Manfarlane attorney-in-fact of friend of Hawaii and worked stronu-
